I apologize, I meant I cannot change my previous recommendation from detention.

However, like I said, if the judge would order him to be released I would not object to the inspiration house.

Hi Luke,

Staci has agreed that, should the Judge agree to place Brian in rehab, she would have no objection to him being placed in Inspiration House. I have been working for weeks trying to find a location that would accept Brian that Staci would find agreeable. Would you object to Brian being placed here?

Best wishes,

Andrew

Strange—Serenity House are insisting to Jan Lazarra they offer IOP.

Inspiration House is also saying they do IOP and they have accepted Brian there. Would that be acceptable?

I just talked to someone on the phone there. She said "if someone is willing to pay, we will keep them". The facility is still structured for a 30 day program. She said their average stay is 17-30 days. We would be looking for something longer term (around 6-12 months). I have no experience with this program in particular so I cannot speak to it.

I think the best course for Mr. Nordan would be to find a halfway house and then find treatment outside of the house at a facility like Bowen Center/Park Center/ Etc like IOP and Mental health treatment. The unfortunate part about that is a lot of halfway houses have wait lists. However there are several in Fort Wayne we can recommend.

Hi Staci, Luke and Sarah:

Happy New Year, I hope you're all doing well.

I'm writing to see if you all would have any objection to my client being placed at Foundations in Augusta, Michigan until trial in this case. He has completed the assessment and been accepted (see the attached letter), the facility specializes in addiction, and they can hold him until trial.

Please let me know your thoughts on this. Have a great weekend.

Best,

Andrew
